

This is a digital copy of a book that was preserved for generations on library shelves before it was carefully scanned by Google as part of a project to make the world's books discoverable online.

It has survived long enough for the copyright to expire and the book to enter the public domain. A public domain book is one that was never subject to copyright or whose legal copyright term has expired. Whether a book is in the public domain may vary country to country. Public domain books are our gateways to the past, representing a wealth of history, culture and knowledge that's often difficult to discover.

Marks, notations and other marginalia present in the original volume will appear in this file - a reminder of this book's long journey from the publisher to a library and finally to you.

Usage guidelines

Google is proud to partner with libraries to digitize public domain materials and make them widely accessible. Public domain books belong to the public and we are merely their custodians. Nevertheless, this work is expensive, so in order to keep providing this resource, we have taken steps to prevent abuse by commercial parties, including placing technical restrictions on automated querying.

We also ask that you:

- + Make non-commercial use of the files We designed Google Book Search for use by individuals, and we request that you use these files for personal, non-commercial purposes.
- + Refrain from automated querying Do not send automated queries of any sort to Google's system: If you are conducting research on machine translation, optical character recognition or other areas where access to a large amount of text is helpful, please contact us. We encourage the use of public domain materials for these purposes and may be able to help.
- + Maintain attribution The Google "watermark" you see on each file is essential for informing people about this project and helping them find additional materials through Google Book Search. Please do not remove it.
- + Keep it legal Whatever your use, remember that you are responsible for ensuring that what you are doing is legal. Do not assume that just because we believe a book is in the public domain for users in the United States, that the work is also in the public domain for users in other countries. Whether a book is still in copyright varies from country to country, and we can't offer guidance on whether any specific use of any specific book is allowed. Please do not assume that a book's appearance in Google Book Search means it can be used in any manner anywhere in the world. Copyright infringement liability can be quite severe.

PROCLAMATIONS.

PROCLAMATIONS

BY

Leon Abbett, Governor of New Jersey.

PROCLAMATION BY THE GOVERNOR.

STATE OF NEW JERSEY,
EXECUTIVE DEPARTMENT,
TRENTON, AUGUST 9TH, 1884. }

The World's Industrial and Cotton Centennial Exposition, New Orleans, under the joint auspices of the United States of America, the National Cotton Planter's Association and the city of New Orleans, authorized the Governor of this State to appoint a Commissioner for New Jersey, who would attend to the duties of representing the state in connection with the Exposition. In pursuance of this authority I appointed Caleb Henry Barney, Esq., of Bergen county, as such commissioner.

The Exposition derives its national character from an act of Congress entitled "An act to encourage the holding of a World's Industrial and Cotton Exposition in the year eighteen hundred and eighty-four," approved by the President of the United States, February 10th, 1883. Under this act, which is substantially like the act under which the Philadelphia Centennial Exposition was held, the President issued a proclamation September 10th, 1883. The United States Government has, by legislation, provided for a loan of $1,000,000, and the expenditure of $300,000 additional for making a collective government exhibit. Nearly every state in the Union has made appropriations for a proper state exhibit, and I deem it of great importance to New Jersey that its manufactures, agricultural interests, resources and advantages should be fully and properly presented to the attention of the citizens of the United States and other countries that will attend the Exposition.

The exhibit of our state at the Centennial of 1876 in Philadelphia was one highly creditable, and, I am convinced, was of advantage, not only to those engaged in manufacturing industries, but also to those engaged in other industries and occupations. I desire that the exhibit of our state in New Orleans in 1884 shall be equal, if not superior, to that in Philadelphia in 1876. To secure proper results it is necessary that our citizens shall personally and actively interest themselves in securing a proper exhibit, and to that end—

I issue this proclamation, urging upon all individuals and corporations and all state officials to aid in securing both individual and state exhibits that will reflect credit upon our commonwealth and the enterprise of its citizens.

I request the representatives of all the manufacturing and other industries of the state, the state officials and all citizens interested in the Exposition, to meet for consultation in the Executive Chamber, in the city of Trenton, August 19th, 1884, at 10 o'clock in the forenoon. I will be present with the State Commissioner and F. C. Morehead, Esq., the Commissioner General of the Exposition, to give all information desired. I shall at that time endeavor to secure the appointment of an Advisory Committee of our citizens to act with the State Commissioner in making our state exhibit one in which we shall all feel a just state pride.

Given under my hand and the Great Seal of the State of New Jersey, at Trenton, this [L. S.] ninth day of August, A. D., eighteen hundred and eighty-four.

LEON ABBETT.

By the Governor,
HENRY C. KELSEY,
Secretary of State.

PROCLAMATION BY THE GOVERNOR.

STATE OF NEW JERSEY,
EXECUTIVE DEPARTMENT, }

To the people of the State of New Jersey:

The laws of this State and of the United States punish with just severity illegal voting, bribery, corruption and attempts to intimidate voters.

I call upon all good citizens to aid the Executive in the enforcement of these laws. The jurisdiction of the State officials and the United States officers appointed to supervise the present election being concurrent under a decree of the Supreme Court of the United States, both should act in harmony, each seeking only the proper execution of the delicate duties entrusted to them.

Illegal voting may be attempted by organized bands of "repeaters" as well as by individuals; in whatever way it is attempted let the proper officials cause the immediate arrest of such parties.

Any attempt at bribery should be promptly met and punished.

Bribery is not only the direct offer of money for a vote, but it equally exists whenever any act is done by which a voter is corruptly influenced, no matter what the ostensible excuse may be.

If any corporation, by its managers, officers or agents, shall, by unlawful means, interfere with the election or prevent any qualified voter from freely exercising the right of suffrage, the Grand Juries both of the Federal and State courts will investigate and ascertain the fact, and the guilty parties will be punished.

If any employer of labor or other person, whether claiming to act under State or Federal authority, shall attempt to intimidate any voter or illegally influence his action, he should be immediately complained of and a warrant issued for his arrest. I call upon the Prosecutors of the Pleas of each county to take such action as will detect crimes against the election laws, and cause the immediate arrest of every one found violating them or conspiring with others to do so.

As Governor, it is made my duty, by the constitution, to take care that the laws of the State upon this subject are faithfully executed. This duty I shall conscientiously and impartially perform.

I, Leon Abbett, Governor of New Jersey, do therefore enjoin upon all officers of the law within this State, the utmost vigilance in enforcing the statutes punishing illegal voting, bribery, corruption and intimidation of voters. I call upon all citizens to aid the officers of the law by their influence and assistance in securing an election free from intimidation, fraud or violence. The Executive will use the entire power of the state to secure that result.

Given under my hand and the great seal of the State of New Jersey, at Trenton, this First day of November, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and eighty-four.

LEON ABBETT.

By the Governor,

HENRY C. KELSEY, Secretary.

PROCLAMATION BY THE GOVERNOR.

In accordance with a long-established custom, the Executive of the State sets apart each year a day of thanksgiving and prayer, so that the people may rest from their labors and assemble in places of religious worship and in their homes, to give thanks to the Almighty God for His great kindness, and to pray that He will keep the evil days far from us and bless us with abundance and prosperity.

I, Leon Abbett, Governor of the State of New Jersey, do therefore designate THURSDAY, the 27th day of November, as a day of public thanksgiving and prayer; and recommend that the people, abstaining from their usual vocations, give thanks to Almighty God for His infinite mercy and goodness to us in the past, and to pray that in the future he will bless the nation, the State and the homes of our people.

Given under my hand and seal at the Executive

Chamber, in the city of Trenton, this 15th day of November, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and eighty-four, and of the independence of the United States the one hundred and ninth.
